

It has been a very busy month in the community! School buses have returned, lots of activity for staging one of our model homes, prepping for and celebrating our annual Senior Appreciation Luncheon, as well as maintaining our day-to-day tasks. I would like to give a shout out to Becky for bringing me a home-cooked meal while working late at staging the model home as well as Myrna and Mary for all of their assistance with the luncheon. You ladies made things so much easier and enjoyable for me.

The luncheon, as with all events, reminds me of what a great community we have. Thanks to you all for making it that way.

BACK TO SCHOOL!

Please be alert for buses in the community.

Congratulations to our Book Bag giveaway winner, Kim Shoemaker!

Be sure to check the Banner News for Cato Homes features!

Our Senior Appreciation Luncheon was a little different this year, but we still had fun! Our Cato community seniors decorated their masks and received goodie bags while touring our new model home in small groups. We had some fun giveaways and then they were provided a delicious lunch to take home from Belmont Specialty Foods. We look forward to next year when we can all share a meal and socialize more all together!

Our Community Seniors were the first to see the newly staged model home! It is now available to all others. If anyone has interest, please contact the office!
