

I am hoping that you and your family had a merry and healthy Christmas holiday. Thanks to all of you for the cards, gifts, treats, and Christmas wishes. My holiday was so much more special because of each one as well as the fun I had with some of the homeowners as we recognized a decorated "Charlie Brown" Christmas tree and did some caroling in the community. We are planning to do it again in 2021, so get your voice ready to join in.

Please read through all of the newsletter. We have lots of announcements and information for you. Follow the reminder of instructions for using bulk pick up this month and get your entry to the office by the 15th for a chance to win a yummy gift card.

Wishing you all a happy and safe New Year that last throughout the entire year. The office will be closed on January 1st and will reopen on the following Monday, the 4th.
