

I hope that you all had opportunities to share love with others on Valentine's Day. Our sweet treat event, at the office, allowed for many opportunities. Thanks to all who shared some their time with me on that special day.

March is known as the windy month, however, it also has some unusual holidays. This is reflective in a surprise giveaway for March. Please enter for a chance to win items that represent some of the quirky days.

The world is amazing when you embrace the quiriness!
