

Although it was a rainy evening, this year's community caroling was our best yet. The additional singers gave a better sound and made the ride more fun. We ended our many stops with sweet treats and hot apple cider at the Feimster's home. It was so nice of them to welcome us in for a social gathering. A terrific way to end the event.

I very much appreciate all of the treats, gifts, and wishes for a Merry Christmas. It is a reminder of how blessed Cato's is to have so many special people. You all contribute to the greatness of the community.
