

March is a month of changes and for getting motivated. The warmer temperatures that Spring brings and the longer days with the time change, are encouragements to get active as well as to clean up and clean out unwanted items. Your next opportunity for disposal will be in April, so get ready.

There are many silly holidays in March such as National Pig Day, National Snack Day, and even a National Save a Spider Day (that I will not participate in); and then we have the great St. Patrick's Day. It is a moment to count our blessings, shake our Shamrock with friends, and hope to get lucky!
