

The "Two Different Colored Shoes Day" event was so much fun. Some of you were quite creative. Thanks to everyone that participated, and I hope you all have enjoyed your prizes!

Another thanks to all in the community from the Belmont Police Department for the wonderful meal from Simonetti's Pizzeria and desserts by Smallcakes. I am always glad and proud to let our officers know that we are thinking of them and appreciate their bravery that keeps us safe as well as opportunities to patronize our local businesses. I encourage you to visit both of these places, if you haven't already, for some really good food.

Don't forget to recognize and show appreciation for your own dad as well as the ones to others. Their sacrifices and guidance greatly impact all of us.

Being a dad isn't easy....but when somebody does it right, it reminds the rest of us what a world-changing difference a good dad can make.
