

I hope you all enjoyed your holiday time with family, friends, and loved ones as well as with your neighbors at our community event. I truly missed being there with you all. Many of you, if not all, know that it was due to my husband's current medical situation. I thank each of you that have given me cards and expressed concerns along with prayers. You all are amazing.

Now it is time to get ready for Christmas. I realize you probably have a very busy schedule ahead of you; however, I am excited about our annual caroling in the community and hope you will participate by singing with us or requesting that we sing for you and join us at the Feimster's home. Let's share a moment of festive fun together. Wishing you all a very safe and fun holiday filled with many wonderful memories.
