

I hope everyone enjoyed their Christmas holiday and created amazing new memories. My Christmas spirit was definitely elevated with our community caroling. I believe it was the liveliest group of singers yet. The energy on the float was very high and it didn't end with the final song. The fun continued at the Feimster's with their wonderful hospitality of cider, treats and conversation. It is so kind of them to invite us all into their home. Many thanks to all who participated with the event and blessed me with treats, gifts, and holiday wishes.

A new year is now here. An opportunity for new beginnings, resolutions, and experiences lies ahead for us. I am wishing that yours are positive and rewarding.
