

May 2026 Cato Community Newsletter

704-825-2946 CATOHOMES.COM

I welcome May with much excitement. It is the best month of Spring with all the blooming flowers and warm days before we endure the scorching summer temperatures. A very important event this month is all the tomatoes being planted for picking in the next months. My bread, Duke's mayonnaise (yes, it must be Duke's), and seasoning is ready for this juicy delight.

May also has designated days to recognize some very special people. I hope all have an opportunity to honor your mother, a person with law enforcement, and the memory of one of our fallen heroes. These are people that have certainly contributed to the well being of others without any expectations of recognition. I personally would like to recognize all of you for continuing to make this community so great.

"Recognition is the heart's way of saying, 'I see you, and you matter.'"
